

RICHARDSON YOUTH LEADERSHIP RECOMMENDATION FORM

Applicant's Name: _____ School: _____

What is your association with this applicant? _____

Richardson Youth Leadership (RYL) is a program created to help students with potential leadership skills further develop those skills. RYL is intended for those students who have not yet developed or displayed those abilities, but who have demonstrated the willingness and commitment to take part in this program. Students must be passing all courses with an overall average of 80, have an A in citizenship, and have had no excessive unexcused absences. Please respond to the following inquiries, keeping in mind the objectives outlined above.

Please provide your observations regarding the leadership abilities of this applicant.

	No Opinion	Below Average	Average	Above Average
Leadership positions applicant has held
Possesses leadership skills which can be further developed
Gains the respect of peers
Works well with peers
Is conscientious and trustworthy
Exhibits good judgment
Possess good social skills/manners

Please expand on the above responses: _____

Because the development of leadership skills is the focus of this program, please discuss the specific areas that this applicant should emphasize, as it relates to their current level of experience and knowledge. Indicate any challenges or obstacles that must be overcome to achieve leadership roles.

Provide any other comments pertinent to evaluating this applicant's suitability for RYL. _____

I recommend this person for RYL. I believe he/she has potential leadership skills which can be enhanced or developed by participation in RYL. I believe that the applicant fits the profile of the student for which RYL is intended.

No Opinion Not at all Somewhat Highly

Your name (print) _____ Position/Title _____

Signature _____ Phone (work) _____ (home) _____